NOTEBOOK

History lesson from a Scottish declaration

Is this a noble call to arms supporting the idea the UK is a mere blip or simply a slogan on a tea towel? Scots will decide on September 18

Red tourism and playing at warfare

I'm a sucker for any form of team building that involves company-sanctioned aggression against workmates

Brits and Germans let old clichés fade

As the first world war is commemorated the two former foes are shedding stereotypical views as their relationship enjoys a brighter phase
